Jonathan Spergel,
Partner at Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP,
Appointed to Board of Directors of City Avenue Special Services District

Philadelphia, PA (March 27, 2012) – Manko, Gold, Katcher, & Fox (MGKF) partner Jonathan Spergel was recently appointed to serve on the Board of Directors of the City Avenue Special Services District (CASSD). The CASSD represents a unique partnership between the City of Philadelphia and the Township of Lower Merion and between the public and private sectors. Covering parts of both Philadelphia and Lower Merion, the District is the first multi-jurisdictional special services or business improvement district from among over 1,200 districts in North America.

Jonathan Spergel has worked at 401 City Avenue since 1993, when he started his legal career with MGKF, an environmental, energy, land use and litigation law firm. He has also been a resident of Bala Cynwyd since 1993, living within a few blocks of the Bala Avenue Corridor.

At MGKF, Spergel handles a wide variety of environmental legal issues, including the environmental aspects of commercial transactions and brownfields sites, environmental insurance procurement and coverage issues, public funding opportunities for brownfields sites, regulatory compliance counseling, and litigation for commercial, industrial, residential, and individual clients. He currently also serves on the board of the Lower Merion Conservancy, on which he has served since 2004.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF was honored to be the top-rated law firm in the Top Workplaces 2012 and 2011 surveys by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com. Offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
