Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox Attorneys Robert D. Fox and Brenda Hustis Gotanda Receive Recognition as “Top Lawyers on the Main Line”

Philadelphia, PA (July 25, 2011) –Robert D. Fox and Brenda Hustis Gotanda of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (“MGKF”), the environmental, energy and land use law firm based in Bala Cynwyd, PA, have been recognized as “Top Lawyers” in the environmental law category by Main Line Today*. The results were compiled from nominations submitted by fellow Main Line attorneys.

Fox has over twenty-five years of experience providing compliance counseling for business and industry regarding hazardous and municipal waste regulations, Superfund matters, water regulation, and storage tank issues; assisting with the environmental aspects of corporate and real estate transactions and real property development, including brownfields redevelopment and wetlands, stormwater, and sewer capacity permitting; and litigating environmental matters before federal and state courts and administrative agencies. He is the managing partner of MGKF and is also a Thomas A. O’Boyle adjunct professor at the University of Pennsylvania School of Law. He currently serves as Chairman of the Lower Merion Township Zoning Board.

Gotanda is Co-Chair of the MGKF Sustainability practice and is a LEED® Accredited Professional (LEED AP). She represents and counsels clients on a broad range of environmental, energy, land use, and health and safety issues in regulatory compliance, transactional, permitting, and enforcement matters. Her practice includes green building, alternative energy and energy efficiency, sustainability programs, due diligence, brownfields redevelopment, water and waste compliance, spill response, and site remediation. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Delaware Valley Green Building Council (DVGBC) and is Chair of the Radnor Township Environmental Advisory Council (EAC). Gotanda is a founder and Director Emeritus of the Society of Women Environmental Professionals of Greater Philadelphia (SWEP). She has also served as Co-Chair of the Environmental Law Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association and as a member of the Board of Directors of the Friends of the Japanese House and Garden in Fairmount Park. Ms. Gotanda earned her J.D. degree, with honors, from the University of Texas School of Law and her B.A. degree, summa cum laude, from Boston College.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF was honored to be the top-rated law firm in the Top Workplaces 2011 survey by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com. Offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
