Kate Campbell
Named Partner at
Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP

Philadelphia, PA (January 4, 2011) – Kate Campbell has been promoted to partner at the firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), the environmental, energy, and land use law firm based in Bala Cynwyd, PA. Robert D. Fox, managing partner of MGKF is pleased by Campbell’s advancement. He said, “She is richly deserving of this promotion. She is an outstanding lawyer, has done an excellent job managing the summer associate program, and is an overall credit to the firm.”

Campbell’s practice focuses on environmental, toxic tort, and class action litigation, as well as on regulatory compliance matters particularly involving federal, state, and interstate water pollution issues. She has successfully represented industrial and commercial entities, as well as closely held companies, in a variety of complex environmental litigation matters. Campbell has also been involved for many years in activities involving Total Maximum Daily Loads for toxic pollutants in the Delaware Estuary, advocating on behalf of individual clients and a regional coalition of industrial and municipal dischargers.

Campbell is a member of the bar in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Eastern District of Pennsylvania and District of New Jersey as well as the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Society of Women Environmental Professionals of Greater Philadelphia. Campbell also teaches Toxic Torts as an adjunct professor at Drexel University's Earle Mack School of Law. She was also listed as a "Rising Star" by Pennsylvania Super Lawyers magazine in 2010.

As a member of the honors program at Villanova University, Campbell earned her undergraduate degree in political science. Receiving her JD from University of Pennsylvania Law School, she served as a senior editor for the Law Review and taught legal writing to first-year law students.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF's offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
