The American Bar Association's Newly Appointed
Chair of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee
John Gullace of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox to speak at ABA Annual Meeting

Philadelphia, PA (July 29, 2010) – John Gullace has recently been appointed Chair of the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Committee of the American Bar Association Section of Environment, Energy and Resources (SEER). He served as Vice Chair for the Committee from 2008 to 2010. Gullace is a partner at Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), the environmental, energy and land use law firm based in Bala Cynwyd, PA.

As committee Chair, Gullace will be responsible for developing a committee action plan, appointing Vice Chairs and ensuring that the committee develops programs, publications and teleconferences about ADR in the environment, energy, and resource context as well as communicating with the ABA's membership about these issues. He will also be speaking on August 6 about ADR at the 2010 ABA Annual Meeting in San Francisco as part of a program titled, "Practicing Law in a Fishbowl—the New Reality of Engaging the Public in Environmental Decision-Making." Gullace helped organize the program and SEER is a co-sponsor.

At MGKF, Gullace primarily handles environmental litigation and alternative dispute resolution matters for clients, ranging from Fortune 500 corporations in an array of business sectors to small closely held businesses and sole proprietorships. He has also completed arbitrator and mediator training through internationally recognized dispute resolution organizations.

Gullace was appointed to the Lower Merion Township Environmental Advisory Council in 2002 and served as its Chair from 2005 through 2008, and its vice-chair in 2004. He was also recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Lower Merion Conservancy. Mr. Gullace received his Juris Doctor from New York University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts at Haverford College.

*Celebrating its 20th year, MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF's offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
