JONATHAN E. RINDE OF MANKO, GOLD, KATCHER & FOX, LLP TO SPEAK ON CURRENT TRENDS IN STORMWATER REGULATION

Philadelphia, PA (April 20, 2009) – Jonathan E. Rinde, a partner with Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP in Bala Cynwyd, will speak on “Current Trends in Stormwater Regulation” at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute’s (PBI) Real Estate seminar on Tuesday, April 28. The program will take place at the CLE Conference Center at the Wannamaker Building in Philadelphia.

Rinde will address real estate, environmental and municipal attorneys, developers, project managers and others on stormwater regulation, permitting and enforcement, new breakthroughs in green development, and the Impact of the Federal Stimulus Package on Clean Water Infrastructure, just in time for spring development projects. The seminar agenda includes Low Impact Development and Green Developments; EPA General Permit; Marcellus Shale Well Development; Stormwater Enforcement Actions; Private Litigation; and Future Trends.

At MGKF, Rinde’s practice includes matters relating to the environmental aspects of real estate development and management, water, and waste regulation and permitting, wetlands regulations, brownfields redevelopment, military base conversions, business transactions, and environmental litigation. He is Vice Chairman of the Perkiomen Watershed Conservancy, is on the Board of Directors for the Collegeville Economic Development Corporation, and chairs the Montgomery County Agricultural Land Preservation Board.

“Current Trends in Stormwater Regulation” will be held on Tuesday, April 28 at the CLE Conference Center, Wanamaker Building, 10th floor, Suite 1010, Juniper Street entrance (between 13th and Broad Streets), Philadelphia. The seminar will be held from 1:15 to 4:30 p.m. with registration and lunch beginning at 12:45 p.m. CLE credits will be offered. For tuition fees and information, call 800-247-4724 or visit www.pbi.org.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic Region and on a national basis.
