JOHN F. GULLACE OF MANKO, GOLD, KATCHER & FOX, LLP RE-ELECTED AS CHAIR OF THE LOWER MERION TOWNSHIP ENVIRONMENTAL ADVISORY COUNCIL

Philadelphia, PA (January 25, 2008) – John F. Gullace, a partner at Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP, was recently re-elected to a fourth consecutive term as Chair of the Lower Merion Township Environmental Advisory Council. Gullace has been a member of the Council since 2002.

The Environmental Advisory Council provides advice to the Lower Merion Township Board of Commissioners, Planning Commission and staff regarding environmental issues and conducts and promotes environmental programs and education within Lower Merion Township. At the request of the Lower Merion Township Board of Commissioners, the Council has been focusing its energy on an environmental action plan for Lower Merion Township.

Gullace is a member of the Montgomery County Bar Association. He served as Chair of the Montgomery County Bar Association Environmental Law Committee in 1999, 2000 and 2002. He was Vice-Chair of the Committee in 2001. Gullace has been a program organizer and speaker on various environmental topics, including environmental litigation and alternative dispute resolution, for such organizations as the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, the Montgomery County Bar Association and the Dispute Resolution Institute. He is also a member of the American and Pennsylvania Bar Associations. He received his undergraduate degree from Haverford College and earned his law degree from New York University School of Law in 1990. He resides in Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Gullace focuses his practice on environmental litigation and arbitration matters and was recognized in 2005 as one of two Pennsylvania Rising Stars in the area of environmental litigation by Law & Politics.
