Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP Releases New Website and Logo

Philadelphia, PA (July 8, 2013) —The environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox unveils an updated look to their logo and website now found at www.mankogold.com. Since its founding, the firm has embraced a core set of principles: providing high quality legal services cost-effectively; understanding clients' businesses; handling complex, cutting edge matters, regionally, nationally and internationally; creating a professional, collegial work environment; holding ourselves to high ethical standards; and combining our legal and technical services in a multi-disciplinary approach. All of these principles aim towards our unwavering singular goal: exceptional client service.

"Our new website showcases these core principles," said Managing Partner Robert Fox. "The site is more accessible and easier to navigate for our current and prospective clients and provides a better snapshot of the depth and breadth of work we are able to deliver."

We invite you to explore the new site enhancements and bookmark it for the future (www.mankogold.com). In addition to the change to our website address, the MGKF emails will now end in @mankogold.com. (Note that any emails sent to the old @mgkflaw.com addresses will be automatically redirected so there will be no interruption in service during this transition).

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF is honored to be the top-rated law firm, since 2011, in the Top Workplaces surveys by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com.
