Matthew C. Sullivan Named Partner at Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP

Philadelphia, PA (January 2, 2014) – Matthew C. Sullivan has been promoted to partner at the environmental, energy and land use law firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), based in Bala Cynwyd, PA. Robert D. Fox, managing partner of MGKF commented, “Matt is an incredible lawyer—one who is diligent and thorough. He is not only respected at the firm but as a commissioner of his township.”

Sullivan has a broad range of experience counseling clients on issues related to regulatory compliance and transactional matters, particularly in the areas of brownfield redevelopment and business operations. Since joining the firm in 2006, he has regularly assisted companies seeking to achieve and maintain regulatory compliance in areas such as hazardous and universal waste management, chemical inventory and other environmental reporting obligations, storage tank requirements, spill prevention and countermeasure planning, and storm water permitting and discharge issues. Sullivan has also frequently assisted clients with negotiations and due diligence activities for real estate transactions and other business deals, and has counseled clients and interfaced with state and federal agencies in the context of spill and brownfield cleanups and a variety of other environmental requirements.

Before joining MGKF, Sullivan worked as a civil engineer for several consulting firms and also obtained an MBA. He is a graduate of Temple’s Beasley School of Law where he was the Editor-in-Chief of the Temple International & Comparative Law Journal and clerked for Judge Susan Peikes Gantman on the Pennsylvania Superior Court. Sullivan earned his MBA from Temple University, and he earned a Bachelor of Science from Lehigh University. He has served the Board of Commissioners of Nether Providence Township since 2007 and has served as the Vice President of that Board since 2010.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. For the tenth consecutive year, MGKF has been listed in the top tier for environmental law in Chambers USA—America's Leading Lawyers for Business. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
