Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP Authors Air Chapter of the New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook

Philadelphia, PA (April 21, 2014) – Members of the Air Quality Practice Group of the environmental, energy, land use law and litigation firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox (MGKF) penned a chapter for the recently released New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook. MGKF co-authors include partners Bart E. Cassidy, Carol F. McCabe, Christopher D. Ball, and Katherine L. Vaccaro, along with attorneys Bryan P. Franey and Michael Dillon.

The New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook brings together over 40 of New Jersey's most experienced environmental law practitioners to provide essential facts and insights that can be used in one resource. The Handbook breaks down some of the State's complex environmental laws and regulations and makes them more understandable, useable and practical for readers. This is the first update to the Handbook since 2007.

The MGKF Air Quality Practice Group counsels clients on all aspects of the application of air regulatory requirements to clients' operations, including permitting, compliance counseling, enforcement issues, auditing, reporting, and regulatory development. The MGKF co-authors were selected to author the Air Chapter of the New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook based on this extensive, air quality related experience. The Air Chapter of the handbook addresses a wide range of air quality issues in New Jersey and the regulatory framework related to those issues, including National Ambient Air Quality Standards, air quality permitting, administrative enforcement actions, and greenhouse gas regulation.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. For the tenth consecutive year, MGKF has been listed in the top tier for environmental law in Chambers USA -- America's Leading Lawyers for Business. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
