Michael M. Meloy of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP, to Speaks at Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry 2014 Core Environmental Conference Series

Wednesday, October 8 (Monroeville, PA)
Tuesday, October 23 (Harrisburg, PA) and
Thursday, October 30 (King of Prussia, PA)

Philadelphia, PA (October 7, 2014) – Michael M. Meloy, a partner with the environmental, energy and land use law and litigation firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (“MGKF”), will speak at the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry’s 2014 Core Environmental Conference Series. The programs will take place throughout October in various sites throughout Pennsylvania. The series starts October 8 in Monroeville, continues in Harrisburg on October 21 and will wrap up in King of Prussia on October 30. Meloy’s panel, entitled, “Residual Waste Compliance and How to Reduce Waste Costs” is slated for a 1 p.m. start at all locations.

Meloy will join other panelists to provide attendees with a Residual Waste Update with a review of the basics of what is considered waste, recent regulatory changes, and critical components of complying with the new laws. They will also cover practical steps for waste analysis and reduction. Hypothetical case studies will be used as a model to follow on best practices for waste compliance and minimization.

Michael Meloy has nearly 30 years of experience in the environmental arena. He brings both a legal and engineering background to bear in representing a wide array of clients ranging from Fortune 100 companies to closely held corporations, partnerships, municipalities, and citizens groups in environmental litigation, regulatory compliance, and transactional matters. Michael has provided regulatory assistance and advice to businesses in connection with all of the major environmental regulatory programs, handled the environmental aspects of complex real estate and corporate transactions, been actively involved in numerous redevelopment and remediation projects around the world, handled environmental litigation in both the federal and state courts and before administrative tribunals, and helped design and implement environmental auditing and compliance management programs.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. For the tenth consecutive year, MGKF has been listed in the top tier for environmental law in Chambers USA—America's Leading Lawyers for Business. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
