Zachary J. Koslap Joins the Environmental and Energy Law Firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP

Philadelphia, PA (September 18, 2015) – Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), an environmental, energy, land use law and litigation firm based just outside of Philadelphia, PA, is pleased to announce that Zachary Koslap has joined the firm as a new associate. He rounds out a team of 29 attorneys, two technical consultants and two paralegals, and will concentrate his practice on regulatory compliance and transactional matters. He was a summer associate with the firm in 2013.

“The firm was very impressed with Zach during his summer clerkship with us and we are thrilled that he has now joined the firm as a full-time attorney,” said Hiring Partner Kate Campbell. “He is extraordinarily bright and yet practical in his approach to the law and has demonstrated a tremendous level of dedication and investment in his matters.”

Zach is a graduate of Stanford Law School, where he earned Pro Bono Distinction for performing at least 50 hours of eligible pro bono work while in law school. At Stanford, he also co-authored a textbook on property law in Timor-Leste. Additionally, he was a member of both the Social Security Disability Pro Bono Project and Stanford's Journal of International Law.

Prior to law school, Zach was a Peace Corps Volunteer in the Republic of Macedonia, where he specialized in local government and community development. He also completed service with AmeriCorps, working in small business development at the Lower Manhattan Business Solutions Center.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
