

AN ENVIRONMENTAL AND ENERGY LAW PRACTICE

Environmental Issues and Opportunities in the Marcellus Shale Region

Thursday, November 3, 2011

Holiday Inn Williamsport
100 Pine Street, Williamsport, PA 17701

The Marcellus Shale is radically transforming Pennsylvania's economic and environmental landscape. Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP, Pennsylvania's largest boutique environmental and energy law firm invites you to attend a free seminar to discuss legal nuances and strategies to facilitate development in the Marcellus Shale region.

Environmental Permitting for Infrastructure in the Marcellus Shale Region 9:00 a.m. - noon

The morning program will address the environmental issues of Marcellus Shale infrastructure development, from permits and air permitting strategies to litigation considerations. Speakers will also discuss the Governor's Marcellus Shale Advisory Commissions Report, and provide some insight on the next wave of environmental issues to face Marcellus Shale infrastructure development.

Environmental Issues Associated with Real Estate Development in the Marcellus Shale Region 1:30 - 4:30 p.m.

The Marcellus Shale gas play has brought new real estate development and redevelopment opportunities to this region. The afternoon program will present an overview of environmental issues associated with development and redevelopment projects in Pennsylvania, including liability protections under Act 2, buyer-seller agreements, environmental due diligence, development permits and insurance. The program will also include a discussion of public funding opportunities.

You may attend the full-day program or opt to attend either the morning or afternoon session. Everyone is invited to the networking luncheon at noon. Please RSVP accordingly.

Panelists will include Kimberly Hummel Childe, Chief Counsel of Pennsylvania's Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR) and includes Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox's:
