Philadelphia, PA (February 16, 2017) –Stephen Daly, an attorney with the environmental and litigation firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP, was a panelist at “The 29th Annual Sadie T.M. Alexander Commemorative Conference” presented by the University of Pennsylvania’s Black Law Students Association. The program focused on Social Media and the Law. Daly’s panel, entitled, “What Did I Say?: The Intersection of Social Media and Employment Law” focused on what employers can do with the posts of their employees as well as the rights employees have in sharing their views. As a panelist, Daly addressed the legal and practical issues that may arise when trying to protect or discover information on social media during complex litigation.

At MGKF, Daly concentrates his practice on environmental litigation and has presented on the best practices for preserving and discovering information on social media, as well as the ethical implications for lawyers raised by social media. Most recently, he was a panelist for, “Put Your Best Face Forward: Managing Your Company’s Online Presence” for the Association of Corporate Counsel Greater Philadelphia’s Ethics & Compliance Institute in December 2016.

Daly was previously a member of Potter Anderson & Corroon’s Corporate Litigation Group where he gained extensive experience in high stakes commercial disputes involving breaches of contract, tortious interference, trade secrets, as well as corporate disputes involving breaches of fiduciary duty. He is a magna cum laude graduate of The Pennsylvania State University, Dickinson School of Law.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, litigation, safety, and land use law. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. For the 13th consecutive year, MGKF has been listed in the top tier for environmental law in Chambers USA—America’s Leading Lawyers for Business. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
