

Please Join Us for the First of an Important New Series

The Sustainability Series:
Issues in Sustainable Living and Growth in Radnor Township

KICK OFF MEETING
GREEN BUILDING 101

Thursday, January 29

7 to 9 pm

Radnor Township Municipal Building (also aired live on Channels 10 & 30)

What is Sustainability and Green Building?

Mark Janiczek, Green Builder and Community Leader

How Green is Green? Measuring Standards & Practices

Brenda Gotanda, Chair, Radnor Environmental Advisory Council

Promoting Green Building - Overview of State/Local Programs

Lorna Rosenberg, Environmental Protection Agency

Making it Real in Radnor, a Success Story

Leo Bernabei, Radnor Township School District

Upcoming Topics in the Sustainability Series, Dates TBA:

- Understanding Emissions and Carbon Footprint Reduction
- Greening Your Own Home: What You as a Resident Can Do
- Land Use, Zoning and Using Green Incentives in Planning
- Open Space Preservation as a Tool in Sustainable Living
- How Sustainable Living Impacts the Health of You and Your Family
- Alternative Sources of Energy: Wind, Solar and More

For more information, please contact the Radnor Conservancy (610) 688-8202 or radnor.conservancy@comcast.net