

MANKO | GOLD | KATCHER | FOX LLP

AN ENVIRONMENTAL AND ENERGY LAW PRACTICE

Keeping Secrets:

Recent Developments in Attorney-Client Privilege and Expert Witness Disclosure Rules

January 26, 2011

When:

Wednesday, January 26, 2011

7:30 a.m. breakfast

7:45-10:00 a.m. program

W V W

Where:

Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox
401 City Avenue, Ste. 500
Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004
(484) 430-5700

Directions

Complimentary parking available.

W V W

Brought to you by:

Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox

W V W

Questions?

Feel free to contact
MGKF's Julie Hayes
at 484-430-2352 or

jhayes@mgkflaw.com

We look forward to seeing you on January 26.

This breakfast program will offer practical tips and strategies that address the real world issues that counsel face in going about the business of doing business. Focusing on best practices methods of preserving confidentiality, Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox attorneys Suzanne Schiller and Jonathan Spergel will tackle recent Pennsylvania cases that are redefining the scope of the attorney-client privilege and disclosure of communications between counsel and expert witnesses. The changes in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure relating to expert witness discovery, effective December 1, 2010, will also be addressed. Approved for 2 ethics CLE credits.

Registration:

There is no fee to attend this program, but pre-registration is required. Program is limited to 25 attendees to promote interaction and discussion among participants.

Panelists include:

- Suzanne Ilene Schiller, Esq.
Partner at MGKF
- Jonathan H. Spergel, Esq.
Partner at MGKF