CLE CREDIT

NEW YORK STATE: Columbia Law School has been certified by the New York State Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Board as an Accredited Provider of CLE programs. Under New York State CLE regulations, this traditional live classroom, suitable for both transitional and nontransitional attorneys, will provide credit hours in an amount to be determined.

NEW JERSEY: Participants seeking NJ CLE credit can do so using their NY CLE certificate via New Jersey's reciprocity rule. Other States: Please consult your state's reciprocity rules regarding acceptance of credits from other approved MCLE jurisdictions.

ELIGIBILITY: This CLE credit is awarded to New York attorneys for full attendance of each individual session of the Program. Attorneys attending only part of the program may be eligible for partial credit. Attorneys seeking credit must affirm arrival and departure times with a signature in the registers. Upon sign-out and departure, attorneys should also submit their completed Evaluation Form, furnished at the Conference. This attendance verification procedure is required by the New York State CLE Board. Please note the NYS Certificates of Attendance will be sent to the email address as it appears in the register unless otherwise noted there.
