Philadelphia, PA (November 16, 2011) – Neil S. Witkes, a partner with the environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF) participated in a recent program at the 2011 Philadelphia Chapter Regional Meeting of the Auditing Roundtable hosted at MGKF’s offices in Bala Cynwyd, PA. Witkes’ presentation entitled “Auditor Reporting: Obligations and Ethics” discussed an issue that is of concern to many auditors -- the circumstances under which an auditor may be obligated to report findings of noncompliance to a government agency or other third party.

Witkes has a wide range of civil and administrative environmental and commercial litigation experience, including class actions, toxic tort claims, insurance coverage suits, defense of agency enforcement actions, citizen suits, challenges to agency action, contract claims, and cost recovery actions. He has represented industrial and commercial entities, as well as real estate developers and closely-held companies, in a variety of environmental and general-commercial litigation matters.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF was honored to be the top-rated law firm in the Top Workplaces 2011 survey by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com. Offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
