Bruce S. Katcher and Jonathan E. Rinde of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP, Presented “Stormwater Regulations & Enforcement in the Real Estate Development Industry:
The D.R. Horton Settlement”

Wednesday, September 21, 2011

Philadelphia, PA (September 22, 2011) – Bruce S. Katcher and Jonathan E. Rinde, partners with the environmental and energy law firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (“MGKF”) spoke recently at the Builders League of South Jersey Business Management Series on “Stormwater Regulations & Enforcement in the Real Estate Development Industry: The D.R. Horton Settlement”. Katcher moderated the session while Rinde detailed the D.R. Horton Settlement, the allegations by EPA and discussed similar nationwide settlements with builders.

At MGKF, Katcher’s practice includes remediation and re-development of contaminated properties; coastal and waterfront development; renewable energy and energy efficiency; air and water pollution control regulatory compliance counseling; wetlands and water supply issues; and transactional counseling. He is one of the founding partners of MGKF, is also the partner in charge of the firm's New Jersey office.

Rinde's practice includes all environmental aspects of real estate development and management, and he counsels clients on environmental permitting, due diligence, and other transactional issues. He handles matters related to wetlands and stormwater regulations, sewage facilities and their planning, brownfields redevelopment, military base conversions, and business transactions. Rinde also is experienced in technical environmental studies and wetland assessments.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF was honored to be the top-rated law firm in the Top Workplaces 2011 survey by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com. Offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
