Meredith DuBarry Huston Presented on Green Building and Green Leases at “Landlord-Tenant Law: Beyond the Basics”

Philadelphia, PA (July 16, 2010) Meredith DuBarry Huston of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), the environmental and energy law firm, was one of the panelists who spoke at the “Landlord-Tenant Law: Beyond the Basics” continuing education seminar. It was presented by Sterling Education Services, Inc., on Tuesday, July 13 at the Hilton Harrisburg. Huston, a LEED® Accredited Professional, spoke to the participants about green building rating systems, green lease agreements, and the legal issues faced by landlords and tenants who enter into green leases.

Huston has written and spoken about the potential liability risks associated with green building. She counsels clients on issues related to litigation, including challenges to agency action, class actions, toxic tort claims, and cost recovery actions under federal and state environmental laws. In addition to litigation, Huston advises clients on a range of environmental matters, including compliance with federal and state statutory and regulatory requirements, including the New Jersey Spill Act and the Pennsylvania Clean Streams Law. She graduated from the University of Pennsylvania School of Law and received her bachelor’s degree in Environmental Studies, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, from Middlebury College.

*Celebrating its 20th year, MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation.
