Philadelphia, PA (May 14, 2010) – Investing in infrastructure can produce long-term economic benefits for a region or an entire state. It is certainly true in Pennsylvania, though the Commonwealth is facing severe funding challenges. To address these issues and create leadership and action to benefit Pennsylvania, the Third Annual Pennsylvania Infrastructure Summit will be held on Thursday, May 20 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center in Philadelphia. Joseph Manko of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), the environmental, energy and land use law firm based in Bala Cynwyd, PA, will take part in the panel discussion, “Funding in Infrastructure Driving Economic Prosperity – 2010.” He will be among a number of industry, government, academic and association leaders of Pennsylvania infrastructure development to participate in the summit as speakers.

Manko has more than 35 years of experience advising clients on environmental issues. In addition to being a founding partner of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, an environmental, energy and land use law firm, he has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since 1991. For 19 years, he served as an adjunct professor of law at the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a summer lecturer-in-law at Vermont Law School. Manko graduated magna cum laude from Yale University in 1961 and cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1964. Manko currently serves on the Board of Fairmount Park Conservancy and co-chairs Mayor Nutter’s Sustainability Advisory Board.
