TODD KANTORCZYK
OF MANKO, GOLD, KATCHER & FOX, LLP
TO PRESENT NATIONAL WEBINAR ON
EPA'S "ENDANGERMENT FINDING" FOR GREENHOUSE GASES
THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 2010

Philadelphia, PA (March 10, 2010) - The Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) "endangerment finding" for greenhouse gases has been the focus of much recent attention as the federal government's approach to climate change regulation continues to evolve. Todd Kantorczyk, a partner with Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox (MGKF), an environmental and energy law firm, will host a webinar presentation on Thursday, March 18 at 11 a.m. sponsored by The Auditing Roundtable to discuss EPA's endangerment finding and its potential impacts on GHG regulation. The Auditing Roundtable is a national organization whose membership includes over 800 environmental, health, and safety auditing professionals.

At MGKF, Kantorczyk focuses his practice on litigation and regulatory compliance counseling, covering a wide range of national, state and local environmental programs. His areas of concentration include air, climate change and energy matters, as well as "toxic tort" litigation. Kantorczyk is a member of the ABA Committee on Climate Change, Sustainable Development and Ecosystems. He received his Juris Doctor from UCLA School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts in government from Cornell University.

To participate in the "Greenhouse Gases and Endangerment to Public Health and Welfare" webinar, the cost for registration is as follows: $40 for members of The Auditing Roundtable; $40 for government and academia; $50 for affiliate members; and $60 for non-members and the general public. Registration information is requested by March 17th, and all log-in will be emailed that day to participants.
