LYNN ROSNER RAUCH OF MANKO, GOLD, KATCHER & FOX, LLP APPOINTED TO THE BOARD OF DELAWARE VALLEY ASSOCIATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG CHILDREN (DVAEYC)

Philadelphia, PA (February 11, 2008) – Lynn Rosner Rauch, a partner with Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), an environmental, energy and land use law firm, was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of the Delaware Valley Association for the Education of Young Children (DVAEYC). She will serve a three-year term. Rauch was introduced to DVAEYC when the firm received the Best Employer for Working Parents Award in 2006, for MGKF's unique customized employment program that allows staff to balance their professional, family and child care demands.

DVAEYC is a non-profit, organization that works on behalf of the needs, rights, and well-being of young children (0-8) in Southeastern Pennsylvania, with a particular emphasis on children and families from the region's neediest communities. DVAEYC supports early childhood leaders in improving the quality of early childhood education and care.

At MGKF, Rauch focuses her practice on environmental litigation. In the community, she is active in several organizations and has served on the boards of the Lower Merion Township Scholarship Fund and Main Line Reform Temple. Rauch received her law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, and graduated magna cum laude from Duke University. She resides in Bala Cynwyd, Pa. with her husband and two children.
