JOSEPH M. MANKO RECEIVES OUTWARD BOUND'S COMPASS AWARD FOR CHARACTER, LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

Philadelphia, PA (May 11, 2015) – Joseph M. Manko, one of the founding partners of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), the environmental, energy and land use law and litigation firm located just outside of Philadelphia, PA, was presented with the Compass Award from Philadelphia Outward Bound School. The presentation took place on May 6, 2015 at a dinner held at Urban Outfitters at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. The Compass Award is presented to those who best demonstrate the fundamental founding principles of this Outward Bound School: character, leadership and service.

Manko is a founding partner of MGKF with more than 40 years of experience advising clients on environmental matters involving real estate transactions and development, regulatory permitting and compliance, environmental reporting and alternative dispute resolution. Community commitment has always been at the forefront for Manko who currently co-chairs the Mayor's Sustainability Advisory Board as well as Project Leadership Committee of the Audubon Pennsylvania and Outward Bound Philadelphia project to preserve the City's East Park Reservoir. He also serves as a vice president and member of the executive committee and board of the Fairmount Park Conservancy, in addition to being on the board of the Philadelphia Orchestra and the Philadelphia Film Society.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
