Mary Anne Jaquay Joins the Environmental and Energy Law Firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP as Chief Operating Officer

Philadelphia, PA (May 12, 2016) – Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), an environmental, energy, land use law and litigation firm based just outside of Philadelphia, PA, is pleased to announce that Mary Anne Jaquay has joined the firm as the Chief Operating Officer. She will replace John S. Kirk, CLM, who is retiring after more than two decades of stellar service to the firm. Jaquay rounds out a team of 29 attorneys, three technical consultants and three paralegals.

With more than 15 years of law firm management experience and a strong background in financial management, Jaquay is well-equipped to manage the firm's growth, operations, and governance and brings with her a diverse skill set that will help align MGKF's strategic plans with the challenging legal industry.

“We will greatly miss John Kirk who has been a key part of our firm for the past 23 years. We are excited for John and his family as he enters the next chapter of his life,” said Managing Partner Jonathan Spergel. “Mary Anne brings a fresh perspective to the firm. She is committed to the overall development and execution of effective and efficient strategic operations within our team to ensure optimum service to our current and future clients.”

Jaquay is a graduate of Canisius College, with a B.S. in Accounting. Her ongoing professional development includes Six Sigma Green Belt Certification from Villanova University, Leading for Organizational Impact from the Center for Creative Leadership, and an insurance certification from St. John’s School of Risk Management in New York.
