Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox Partner Kate Vaccaro and Michael Nines Presented “Are You Prepared for an Environmental Emergency at Your Camp?”
at Tri-State CAMP Conference

Philadelphia, PA (March 31, 2017) – Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP partner Kate Vaccaro and Michael Nines PE., LEED AP, presented at the 2017 Tri-State CAMP Conference on March 16, 2017 in Atlantic City, NJ. Their presentation addressed the types of environmental emergencies that could occur at camps and the related legal reporting and response requirements. They explained best practices for preparing for environmental emergencies and supporting sustainability initiatives and operations.

The 2017 Tri State CAMP Conference is the largest gathering of camp professionals in the world. Camp owners, counselors and others attend to continue their education to preserve, promote and enhance the quality of the summer camp experience as well as learn about new products and services.

Vaccaro concentrates her practice in the areas of regulatory matters related to air quality for a variety of clients, including petroleum refineries, power plants, chemical manufacturers, and commercial entities. She has extensive experience in counseling clients on compliance issues arising under federal and state air pollution control regulations, assisting clients in securing air permits for a variety of complex industrial and commercial facilities, and negotiating agency enforcement actions alleging violations of regulatory requirements. Vaccaro also has experience representing clients in administrative appeals of Title V operating permits, state air permits, and enforcement orders.

Nines is a licensed professional engineer with over 19 years of diverse environmental engineering experience. He provides the firm with high level environmental engineering expertise and regulatory support services regarding complex manufacturing processes, multi-media pollution control, and sustainability initiatives.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, safety, and land use law and litigation.
