MGKF Achieves Recognition for LFSN's ALISS Sustainability Assessment

Philadelphia, PA (September 18, 2017) – Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox has received the ALISS Silver certification from the Law Firm Sustainability Network (LFSN) in recognition of assessing the firm's sustainability program and taking measures to reduce environmental impact.

MGKF's Chief Operating Officer, Mary Anne Jaquay says, "We have been involved with the LFSN for a few years as one of their Leadership Council firms. We're happy to be participating in a program that encourages and recognizes sustainability programs."

ALISS is a self-assessment tool that awards weighted points for various activities covering five broad categories: Internal Sustainability, External Sustainability, Stakeholder Engagement, Measuring & Reporting, and Innovation. Each of these categories is further broken down into sustainability topics, such as Policy, Energy & Utilities, Volunteerism, etc. Based on the number of points they receive through the ALISS self-assessment, participating firms achieve award level recognitions.

The Manko team has long been committed to providing the highest quality legal services to clients while acting as responsible stewards for the environment. More information about ALISS can be found at www.lfsnetwork.org.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, litigation, safety, and land use law. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. For the 14th consecutive year, MGKF has been listed in the top tier for environmental law in Chambers USA—America's Leading Lawyers for Business. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
