Maria C. Salvemini Joins the Environmental and Energy Law Firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP

Philadelphia, PA (October 9, 2017) – Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), an environmental, energy, land use law and litigation firm based just outside of Philadelphia, PA, is pleased to announce that Maria Salvemini has joined the firm as a new associate. She will concentrate her practice on environmental litigation and regulatory compliance matters.

During law school, Maria served as Co-President of the Environmental and Energy Law Society and was involved in the Villanova Law Review as both a Staff Writer and Student Works Editor. She participated as a certified legal intern with the Villanova Law Clinic for Asylum, Refugee & Emigrant Services (CARES) in 2016.

Additionally, Maria spent the summer of 2016 at MGKF and now joins ten other former summer associates that have built their careers at the firm. She also worked as a summer associate at Pepper Hamilton and as a legal extern at UGI Corporation during law school.

She is a magna cum laude graduate of Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law. She also received her Bachelor of Arts (English and Political Science, Environmental Studies minor) magna cum laude from Villanova.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. Offices are located at: 401 City Avenue, Suite 901, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and at 25 West Third Street, Suite 303, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.
