Suzanne Ilene Schiller Presents:
“Earth, Air and Water: What’s On Fire in Environmental Law?”

U.S. Shopping Center Law Conference
San Antonio, TX
October 26, 2017

Philadelphia, PA (October 12, 2017) –Suzanne Ilene Schiller, a litigation partner with the environmental law and litigation firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), will co-present the upcoming US Shopping Center Law Conference workshop entitled, "Earth, Air and Water: What’s On Fire in Environmental Law?" The presentation is on October 26, 2017 from 9:00 – 10:15 a.m. at the JW Marriott San Antonio Hill Country Resort & Spa in San Antonio, TX.

The program will focus on the recent developments in environmental law affecting the shopping center industry such as vapor intrusion, stormwater management, green leasing and waste disposal. There will also be an analysis of the how current government administrative changes have impacted the environmental concerns and interests of developers, owners and tenants. The presentation is structured to be interactive and draw attendees into discussions on staying ahead of the changing federal and state laws and managing public expectations.

Schiller focuses her practice in the areas of environmental, real estate and complex civil litigation, with particular experience in CERCLA, cost recovery and contribution actions, as well as storage tank, real estate development, and leasing matters. She has represented potentially responsible parties in numerous multiparty Superfund and cost recovery cases, including recently the BKK Landfill, Yosemite Slough, and Mouren-Laurens/Leach Oil Company (Rev973) Sites in California, and the Standard Chlorine Chemical Company and the Combe Fill South Landfill Sites in New Jersey. Ms. Schiller is AV® Preeminent® Peer Review Rated through Martindale-Hubbell® and a fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America, trying jury and non-jury cases in federal and state courts and appearing before administrative agencies, hearing boards and appellate courts throughout the country. She is also a frequent speaker at legal and industry conferences and seminars, and a regular author on environmental and real estate issues.
