MGKF's McCabe and Vaccaro Presented "What's in the Air? Permitting – Enforcement – Modeling – Continuous Monitoring"

Carol F. McCabe

Katherine L. Vaccaro

Philadelphia, PA (July 19, 2018) – Partners Carol McCabe and Katherine “Kate” Vaccaro of the environmental, energy, litigation, safety and land use law firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF) located outside Philadelphia, PA, presented, “What’s in the Air? Permitting-Enforcement-Modeling-Continuous Monitoring” on July 17, 2018. The program was co-sponsored with ALL4 Inc and their Project Manager JP Kleinle rounded out the panel of presenters.

During this 60-minute program, attendees learned about air updates and outlooks and how recent developments may impact their businesses. The panel covered current trends in air enforcement, compliance and permitting, as well as the use of continuous monitoring systems.

MGKF Partner Carol McCabe works in the firm's complex industrial and regulatory practices. She has worked with a broad range of industrial clients in the manufacturing, energy and waste management sectors. Carol counsels clients on a wide variety of environmental issues, including permitting, compliance and enforcement matters related to air emissions, storage tanks, stormwater, wastewater, and hazardous and non-hazardous waste. She has assisted clients with day-to-day compliance, environmental auditing, permit appeals, and defense of agency enforcement actions. She has represented clients before the Pennsylvania Environmental Hearing Board, the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Environmental Appeals Board, and the District of Columbia Circuit Court of Appeals.

Since joining the firm in 2005, Kate Vaccaro has concentrated on regulatory matters related to air quality for a range of clients, including petroleum refineries, power plants, chemical manufacturers, and commercial entities. She has extensive experience in counseling clients on compliance issues arising under federal and state air pollution control regulations, assisting clients in securing air permits for a variety of complex industrial and commercial facilities, and negotiating agency enforcement actions alleging violations of regulatory requirements. In the litigation context, Kate has represented clients in challenging federal air regulations before the United States Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit, particularly with respect to standards affecting the electricity generation sector. Kate also has extensive experience in representing clients in administrative appeals of Title V operating permits, state air permits, and enforcement orders, including before the Pennsylvania Environmental Hearing Board and the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, litigation, safety and land use law. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF is honored to be the top-rated law firm, since 2011, in the Top Workplaces surveys by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com. The firm was recognized by Law360, produced by Portfolio Media, Inc., as one of the top 20 "Ceiling Smashers" for Female Partners in the nation, based on its percentage of women in the partnership.
