Philadelphia, PA (September 29, 2022) – Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), an environmental, energy, land use law and litigation firm based just outside of Philadelphia, PA, is pleased to announce that Brielle A. Brown and Alice F. Douglas have joined the firm this month. Brielle will focus on regulatory and transactional matters while Alice will be part of the litigation team.

Alice came to the firm after serving as a law clerk to the Honorable Robert O. Baldi in the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas. She graduated cum laude from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law where she received a Dean's Merit Scholarship and completed a concentration in litigation and dispute resolution. During law school, Alice was a legal intern for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Region III and served as President of the Environmental and Energy Law Society. Additionally, Alice was an executive member of the Villanova Law Moot Court Board and advanced to the final round of the 60th Annual Theodore L. Reimel Moot Court Competition.

Alice attended Davidson College for her undergraduate degree in Environmental Studies with a minor in Health and Human Values. She graduated cum laude and received departmental honors

Brielle was a summer associate of the firm in 2020 and 2021. She graduated on the Dean's List from Drexel University's Thomas R. Kline School of Law where she won the award for Outstanding Achievement in a Clinical Setting after supporting the successful commutation of a Philadelphia elder. She also served as secretary of the Black Law Students Association and Online Media Editor for Drexel Law Review. Her note, "Where's my Ballot?: Why Congress Should Amend House Bill H.R.1 to Include a National Mandate of Drop Boxes for Federal Elections to Help Protect the Black Vote" was published in Volume 14 of the journal.

Brielle holds a Bachelor of Science, magna cum laude, in Communications and Rhetorical Studies from Syracuse University. She was the President of the Kappa Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta and served as academic chair for the National Pan-Hellenic Council. Prior to law school, Brielle honed her communications and writing skills and received an Emma Bowen Internship at WCAU NBC10 in the investigative department.
