Philadelphia, PA (January 10, 2023) – Stephen Daly has been promoted to partner at the environmental, energy and land use law firm of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), located in suburban Philadelphia. MGKF’s Managing Partner Carol F. McCabe commented, “We are so happy that Steve has become a partner of the firm. His work ethic is outstanding, and he takes a thorough approach to each matter, examining all angles.” Litigation group chair Nicole Moshang added, “Steve’s knowledge of the law and easy demeanor makes him a key member of the litigation team and an asset to the MGKF partnership.”

Steve has litigated numerous matters relating to large or controversial infrastructure or development projects, which frequently involve litigation across multiple forums – state, federal, and local – and before administrative agencies. He has extensive experience in administrative litigation, including challenges brought against federal agencies under the Administrative Procedure Act, as well as challenges to agency action before the Pennsylvania Environmental Hearing Board, the Delaware River Basin Commission, the Delaware Environmental Appeals Board, and the Delaware Coastal Zone Industrial Control Board, as well as under Article 78 in New York.

Steve was recently selected to the inaugural class of the Monroe County of New York's Bar Association Leadership Academy. He is a magna cum laude graduate of The Pennsylvania State University, Dickinson School of Law. During law school, Steve also served as a federal judicial extern for the Honorable D.
